

2017 Midwestern Star Award Application

Email application and resume to MAASU Communications Chair at comm@maasu.org
Deadline to apply: Saturday, March 18, 2017 @ 11:59 pm CST

The Midwestern Star Award was started in Spring 2011 in accordance with MAASU's mission statement under the objective in assisting and encouraging Asian Pacific Islander American (APIA) students to work towards social change and providing a forum of social consciousness.

This award honors and recognizes the many outstanding students who commit on a daily basis to fostering and cultivating positive change within their APIA community, whether it be locally, regionally or nationally. MAASU acknowledges the extraordinary efforts of these students within the Midwest taking a path of great struggle sometimes with little to no appreciation. This award is to distinguish those unsung heroes of our communities serving as guiding stars for our generation.

Persons nominated for the Midwestern Stars award can be anyone who has made a great impact on their APIA community through contributions of advisement, programming, leadership, or other means that have uplifted a community higher than what it has been previously. Gathering students who have inspired and encouraged our generation to take action with issues affecting the APIA community is the core of our movement. Feel free to nominate someone you believe has changed and impacted your life in ways others have not or even apply yourself.

Eligibility:

- Be a student attending a college or university in the Midwest Region.
- Self nominations and nominations are open to the public. Submit nominations to comm@maasu.org with person(s) being suggested and their email address.
- An individual may only receive a Midwestern Star Award once.
- Apply by Saturday, March 18, 2017 @ 11:59 pm CST.
